7	Defendant
8		Date: (0)1)10
9	Comes now Clint Carmichael, hereinafter referred to as "Petitioner," and moves
10	the court for relief as herein requested:
11 12	PARTIES  Petitioner is Clint Carmichael, 12602 North 189th Circle Bennington, NE 68007.
13 14 15	Currently Known Defendant(s) are/is: JP Morgan Chase, 270 PARK AVE, NEW YORK, NY 80111, by and through its attorney, Steffi A. Swanson, 1902 Harlan Drive, Suite A, Bellevue NE 68005.
16 17 18 19	STATEMENT OF CAUSE  Petitioner, on the 5 th day of January, 2006, entered into a consumer contract for the refinance of a primary residence located at 12602 North 189th Circle, Bennington, NE 68007, hereinafter referred to as the "property."
20 21	Defendants, acting in concert and collusion w predatory loan agreement with Defendant.	rith others, induced Petitioner to	enter into a

22	Defendants committed numerous acts of fraud against Petitioner in furtherance of a carefully
23	crafted scheme intended to defraud Petitioner.
24	Defendants failed to make proper notices to Petitioner that would have given Petitioner warning
25	of the types of tactics used by Defendants to defraud Petitioner.
26	Defendants charged false fees to Petitioner at settlement.
27	Defendants used the above referenced false fees to compensate agents of Petitioner in order to
28	induce said agents to breach their fiduciary duty to Petitioner.
29	Defendant's attorney caused to be initiated collection procedures, knowing said collection
30	procedures in the instant action were frivolous as lender is estopped from collection procedures,
31	under authority of Uniform Commercial Code 3-501, subsequent to the request by Petitioner for
32	the production of the original promissory note alleged to create a debt.
33	IN BRIEF
34	(Non-factual Statement of Posture and Position)
35	It is not the intent of Petitioner to indict the entire industry. It is just that Plaintiff will be
36	making a number of allegations that, outside the context of the current condition of the real
37	estate industry, may seem somewhat outrageous and counter-intuitive.
38	When Petitioner accuses ordinary individuals of acting in concert and collusion with an
39	ongoing criminal conspiracy, it tends to trigger an incredulous response as it is
40	unreasonable to consider that all Agents, loan agents, appraisers, and other ordinary
41	people, just doing what they have been trained to do, are out to swindle the poor
42	unsuspecting borrower.
43	The facts Petitioner is prepared to prove are that Petitioner has been harmed by fraud
44	committed by people acting in concert and collusion, one with the other. Petitioner has no
45	reason to believe that the Agent, loan officer, appraiser, and others were consciously aware
46	that what they were doing was part of an ongoing criminal conspiracy, only that it was,
47	and they, at the very least, kept themselves negligently uninformed of the wrongs they
48	were perpetrating.
49	Petitioner maintains that the real culprit is as much the system itself, including the courts, good cause to exercise care in their dealings with unsuspecting consumers.

ORIGINAL PETITION AND PETITION FOR RESTRAINING ORDER

for failure to strictly enforce the protections that remain in place in order to give lenders

2 of 28

52 CAREFULLY CRAFTED CRIMINAL CONNIVANCE 53 (General State of the Real Estate Industry) 54 THE BEST OF INTENTIONS 55 Prior to the 1980's and 1990's ample government protections were in place to protect the 56 consumer and the lending industry from precisely the disaster we now experience. 57 President Clinton's administration, under the guise of making housing available to the 58 poor, primary protections were relaxed which had the effect of releasing the money 59 changers on us all. 60 Under the pre-existing, carefully crafted monetary scheme, Lenders created loans then 61 they then stood the risk for said loan, and most Americans were, consequently, engaged in 62 safe and stable home mortgages. With the protections removed, the money changers 63 swooped in and, instead of making loans available to the poor, they used the opportunity to 64 convince the unsophisticated American public to do something that had been essentially 65 taboo; they were convinced to speculate with their most important investment, their 66 homes. 67 JP Morgan Chase, Ameriquest, Country Wide, and many others swooped in and convinced 68 Americans to sell their homes, get out of the safe mortgage agreements, and speculate with 69 the equity by purchasing homes they could not afford. Lenders created loans intended to 70 fail as, under the newly crafted system, the Lender profited more from a mortgage default 71 than from a stable loan. 72 Companies cropped up who called themselves banks when, in fact, they were only either 73 subsidiaries of banks, or unaffiliated companies that were operated for the purpose of 74 creating and selling promissory notes. These companies then profited from the failure of 75 the underlying loans. 76 HOW IT WORKS 77 Briefly, how it works is this, the Lender would secure a large loan from a large bank, 78 convert that loan into 20 and 30 year mortgages, then sell the promise to pay to an 79 investor. 80 An agent, usually a Agent, would contract with a seller to find a buyer, then bring both seller and buyer to a lender who would secure the title from the seller using the funds 81 82 borrowed for that purpose then trade the title to the buyer in exchange for a promise to pay ORIGINAL PETITION AND PETITION FOR RESTRAINING ORDER 3 of 28

- 83 a certain amount over a stipulated term. The lender, however, has created a 20 or 30 year
- 84 mortgage with money the lender must repay within 6 months, therefore, as soon as the
- 85 closing is consummated, the promissory note is pooled together with others and sold to an
- 86 investor.
- Using the instant case as an example, a $744,800.00 note at 9.3680% interest over 30
- years will produce $2,250,057.82 The lender can then offer up the security at say 50% of
- 89 the future value to the investor. The investor will, over the life of the note, less
- approximately 3.00% servicing fees, realize $1,091,278.04. The lender can then pay back
- 91 the bank and retain a handsome profit in the amount of $413,979.78. The lender, however,
- 92 is not done with the deal.
- The lender signed over the promissory note to the investor at the time of the trade, did not
- 94 sign over the lien document. The State of Kansas Supreme Court addressed this issue and
- 95 stated that such a transaction was certainly legal, however, it created a fatal flaw in that,
- 96 the holder of the lien document, at time of sale of the security instrument, received
- 97 consideration in excess of the lien amount, and therefore, the lender could not be harmed
- 98 and the lien became a void document.
- 99 This begs a question, if keeping the lien would render it void, why would the lender not - simply transfer the lien with the promissory note? As always, follow the money. The
- 101 lender will hold the lien for three years, file an Internal Revenue Form 1099a, claim the
- full amount of the lien as abandoned funds, and deduct the full amount from the lender's
- tax liability. The lender, by this maneuver, gets consideration a second time and still the
- lender is not done profiting from the deal.
- After sale of the promissory note, the lender remains as the servicer for the investor. The
- lender will receive 3% of each payment the lender collects and renders to the investor
- pool. However, if the payment is late, the lender is allowed to assess an extra 5% and keep
- that amount. Also, if the loan defaults, the lender stands to gain a considerable amount for
- 109 handling the foreclosure.
- 110 The lender stands to profit far more from a note that is overly expensive in the first
- instance, then slow to pay in the second, then ultimately fails in the third, than from good
- stable loan. And where, you may ask, does all this profit come from? It comes from the
- equity the lender convinced the borrower to invest in the new purchase, and still the lender
- is not finished profiting from the deal.

- The last nail was driven in the American financial coffin on the last day of the Congress in
- 2000 when they removed a restriction that had been in place since the economic collapse
- of 1907. At that time, investors were allowed to bet on stocks without actually buying
- them. This unbridled speculation lead directly to an economic collapse so the legislature
- banned the practice, until the year 2000. The money changers got their way on the last
- day, the last act of the session, when congress opened the process against and it took only
- 121 8 years to crash the stock market again.
- The lender was not done profiting from the loan he created as he was then free to bet on
- the failure of the security.
- 124 The unsuspecting consumer was lulled into accepting the pronouncements of the Agent
- agents, the lenders, appraiser, underwriters, and trustees as all were acting under the cover
- of government regulation. Unfortunately, the regulations in place to protect the consumer
- from just this kind of abuse were simply being ignored.
- The loan origination fee from of the HUD1 settlement statement is the finder's fee paid for
- the referral of the client to the lender by a person acting as an agent for the borrower.
- Hereinafter, the person or entity who receives any portion of the yield spread premium, or
- a commission of any kind consequent to securing the loan agreement through from the
- borrower will be referred to as "Agent." The fee, authorized by the consumer protection
- law is restricted to 1% of the principal of the note. It was intended that the Agent, when
- seeking out a lender for the borrower, would seek the best deal for his client rather than
- who would pay him the most. That was the intent, but not the reality. The reality is that
- 136 Agents never come away from the table with less than 2% or 3% of the principal. This is
- accomplished by undisclosed fees to the Agent in order to induce the Agent to breach his
- fiduciary duty to the borrower and convince the borrower to accept a more expensive loan
- product that the borrower qualifies for. This will generate more profits for the lender and,
- 140 consequently, for the Agent.
- 141 It was a common practice for lenders to coerce appraisers to give a higher appraisal than is
- the fair market price. This allows the lender to increase the cost of the loan product and
- give the impression that the borrower is justified in making the purchase.
- 144 The lender then charges the borrower an underwriting fee in order to convince the
- borrower that someone with knowledge has gone over the conditions of the note and
- 146 certified that the meet all legal criteria.

- 147 The entire loan process is a carefully contrive connivance designed and intended to induce
- the unsophisticated borrower into accepting a loan product that is beyond the borrowers
- 149 means.

- 150 The trustee, at closing, participates actively in the deception of the borrower by placing
- undue stress on the borrower to sign the large stack of paperwork without reading it. The
- trustee is, after all, to be trusted and has been paid to insure the transaction. This trust is
- systematically violated for the purpose of taking unfair advantage of the borrower.
- With all this, it should be a surprise to no one that this country is having a real estate crisis.

PETITIONER WILL PROVE THE FOLLOWING

- Petitioner is prepared to prove, by a preponderance of evidence that:
- 157 Lender has no legal standing to bring collection or foreclosure claims against the property;
- 158 Lender is not a real party in interest in any contract which can claim a collateral interest in
- 159 the property;
- even if Lender were to prove up a contract to which Lender had standing to enforce against
- Petitioner, no valid lien exists which would give Lender a claim against the property;
- 162 even if Lender were to prove up a contract to which Lender had standing to enforce against
- 163 Petitioner, said contract was fraudulent in its creation as endorsement was secured by acts
- of negligence, common law fraud, fraud by non-disclosure, fraud in the inducement, fraud
- 165 in the execution, usury, and breaches of contractual and fiduciary obligations by
- Mortgagee or "Trustee" on the Deed of Trust, "Mortgage Agents," "Loan Originators,"
- 167 "Loan Seller," "Mortgage Aggregator," "Trustee of Pooled Assets," "Trustee or officers of
- 168 Structured Investment Vehicle," "Investment Banker," "Trustee of Special Purpose
- 169 Vehicle/Issuer of Certificates of 'Asset-Backed Certificates," "Seller of 'Asset-Backed'
- 170 Certificates (shares or bonds)," "Special Servicer" and Trustee, respectively, of certain
- mortgage loans pooled together in a trust fund;
- 172 Defendants have concocted a carefully crafted connivance wherein Lender conspired with
- 173 Agents, et al, to strip Petitioner of Petitioner's equity in the property by inducing Plaintiff
- to enter into a predatory loan inflated loan product;
- 175 Lender received unjust enrichment in the amount of 5% of each payment made late to
- 176 Lender while Lender and Lender's assigns acted as servicer of the note;

177

Lender and Lender's assigns, who acted as servicer in place Lender, profited by handling 178 the foreclosure process on a contract Lender designed to default; 179 Lender intended to defraud Investor by converting the promissory note into a security 180 instrument and selling same to Investor: 181 Lender intended to defraud Investor and the taxpayers of the United States by withholding 182 the lien document from the sale of the promissory note in order that Lender could then 183 hold the lien for three years, then prepare and file Internal Revenue Form 1099a and 184 falsely claim the full lien amount as abandoned funds and deduct same from Lender's 185 income tax obligation; 186 Lender defrauded backers of derivatives by betting on the failure of the promissory note 187 the lender designed to default; 188 Participant Defendants, et al, in the securitization scheme described herein have devised 189 business plans to reap millions of dollars in profits at the expense of Petitioner and others 190 similarly situated. 191 PETITIONER SEEKS REMEDY 192 In addition to seeking compensatory, consequential and other damages, Petitioner seeks 193 declaratory relief as to what (if any) party, entity or individual or group thereof is the 194 owner of the promissory note executed at the time of the loan closing, and whether the 195 Deed of Trust (Mortgage) secures any obligation of the Petitioner, and a Mandatory 196 Injunction requiring re-conveyance of the subject property to the Petitioner or, in the 197 alternative a Final Judgment granting Petitioner Quiet Title in the subject property. 198 PETITIONER HAS BEEN HARMED Petitioner has suffered significant harm and detriment as a result of the actions of Defendants. 199 200 Such harm and detriment includes economic and non-economic damages, and injuries to 201 Petitioner's mental and emotional health and strength, all to be shown according to proof at trial. 202 In addition, Petitioner will suffer grievous and irreparable further harm and detriment unless the 203 equitable relief requested herein is granted.

204 STATEMENT OF CLAIM

DEFENDANTS LACKS STANDING

No evidence of Contractual Obligation

Defendants claim a controversy based on a contractual violation by Petitioner but have failed to produce said contract. Even if Defendants produced evidence of the existence of said contract in the form of an allegedly accurate photocopy of said document, a copy is only hearsay evidence that a contract actually existed at one point in time. A copy, considering the present state of technology, could be easily altered. As Lender only created one original and that original was left in the custody of Lender, it was imperative that Lender protect said instrument.

In as much as the Lender is required to present the original on demand of Petitioner, there can be no presumption of regularity when the original is not so produced. In as much as Lender has refused Petitioner's request of the chain of custody of the security instrument in question by refusing to identify all current and past real parties in interest, there is no way to follow said chain of custody to insure, by verified testimony, that no alterations to the original provisions in the contract have been made. Therefore, the alleged copy of the original is only hearsay evidence that an original document at one time existed. Petitioner maintains that, absent production of admissible evidence of a contractual obligation on the part of Petitioner,

Defendants are without standing to invoke the subject matter jurisdiction of the court.

No Proper Evidence of Agency

Defendants claim agency to represent the principal in a contractual agreement involving Petitioner, however, Defendants have failed to provide any evidence of said agency other than a pronouncement that agency has been assigned by some person, the true identity and capacity of whom has not been established. Defendants can hardly claim to be agents of a principal then refuse to identify said principal. All claims of agency are made from the mouth of the agent with no attempt to provide admissible evidence from the principal.

Absent proof of agency, Defendants lack standing to invoke the subject matter jurisdiction of the court.

242

243

244

245 246

247

248

249

232 Since the entity now claiming agency to represent the holder of the security instrument is not the original lender, Petitioner has reason to believe that the promissory note, upon consummation of 233 234 the contract, was converted to a security and sold into a special purpose vehicle and now resides in a Real Estate Mortgage Investment Conduit (REMIC) 235 as defined by the Internal Revenue 236 Code and as such, cannot be removed from the REMIC as such would be a prohibited If the mortgage was part of a special purpose vehicle and was removed on 237 consideration of foreclosure, the real party in interest would necessarily be the trustee of the special purpose vehicle. Nothing in the pleadings of Defendants indicates the existence of a 240 special purpose vehicle, and the lack of a proper chain of custody documentation gives Petitioner cause to believe defendant is not the proper agent of the real party in interest.

CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY AND THEFT

Defendants, by and through Defendant's Agents, conspired with other Defendants, et al, toward a criminal conspiracy to defraud Petitioner. Said conspiracy but are not limited to acts of negligence, breach of fiduciary duty, common law fraud, fraud by non-disclosure, and tortuous acts of conspiracy and theft, to include but not limited to, the assessment of improper fees to Petitioner by Lender, which were then used to fund the improper payment of commission fees to Agent in order to induce Agent to violate Agent's fiduciary duty to Petitioner.

AGENT PRACTICED UP-SELLING

By and through the above alleged conspiracy, Agent practiced up-selling to Petitioner. In so 250 251 doing, Agent violated the trust relationship actively cultivated by Agent and supported by fact 252 that Agent was licensed by the state. Agent further defrauded Petitioner by failing to disclose 253 Agent's conspiratorial relationship to Lender, Agent violated Agent's fiduciary duty to 254 Petitioner and the duty to provide fair and honest services, through a series of carefully crafted 255 connivances, wherein Agent proactively made knowingly false and misleading statements of 256 alleged fact to Petitioner, and by giving partial disclosure of facts intended to directly mislead 257 Petitioner for the purpose of inducing Petitioner to make decisions concerning the acceptance of 258 a loan product offered by the Lender. Said loan product was more expensive than Petitioner 259 could legally afford. Agent acted with full knowledge that Petitioner would have made a 260 different decision had Agent given complete disclosure.

261	FRAUDULENT INDUCEMENT
262	Lender maliciously induced Petitioner to accept a loan product, Lender knew, or should have
263	known, Petitioner could not afford in order to unjustly enrich Lender.
264	EXTRA PROFIT ON SALE OF PREDATORY LOAN PRODUCT
265	Said more expensive loan product was calculated to produce a higher return when sold as a
266	security to an investor who was already waiting to purchase the loan as soon as it could be
267	consummated.
268	Extra Commission for Late Payments
269	Lender acted with deliberate malice in order to induce Petitioner into entering a loan agreement
270	that Lender intend Petitioner would have difficulty paying. The industry standard payment to the 271	servicer for servicing mortgage note is 3% of the amount collected. However, if the borrower is
272	late on payments, a 5% late fee is added and this fee is retained by the servicer. Thereby, the
273	Lender stands to receive more than double the regular commission on collections if the borrower
274	pays late.
275	Extra Income for Handling Foreclosure
276	Lender acted with deliberate malice in order to induce petitioner to enter into a loan agreement
277	on which Lender intend petitioner to default on.
278	In case of default, the Lender, acting as servicer, receives considerable funds for handling and
279	executing the foreclosure process.
280	Credit Fault Swap Gambling
281	Lender, after deliberately creating a loan intended to default is now in a position to bet on credit
282	fault swap derivatives. Since Lender designed the loan to fail, betting on said failure is
283	essentially a sure thing.
284	LENDER ATTEMPTING TO FRAUDULENTLY COLLECT ON VOID LIEN
285	Lender sold the security instrument immediately after closing and received consideration in an
286	amount in excess of the lien held by Lender.

- Since Lender retained the lien document upon the sale of the security instrument, Lender separated the lien from said security instrument, creating a fatal and irreparable flaw.
- When Lender received consideration while still holding the lien and said consideration was in
- excess of the amount of the lien, Lender was in a position such that he could not be harmed and
- could not gain standing to enforce the lien. The lien was, thereby, rendered void.
- 292 Since the separation of the lien from the security instrument creates such a considerable concern,
- said separation certainly begs a question: "Why would the Lender retain the lien when selling the
- 294 security instrument?"
- When you follow the money the answer is clear. The Lender will hold the lien for three years,
- 296 then file and IRS Form 1099a and claim the full amount of the lien as abandoned funds and
- 297 deduct the full amount from Lender's tax liability, thereby, receiving consideration a second
- 298 time.

302

- 299 Later, in the expected eventuality of default by petitioner, Lender then claimed to transfer the
- 300 lien to the holder of the security, however, the lien once satisfied, does not gain authority just
- because the holder, after receiving consideration, decides to transfer it to someone else.

LENDER PROFIT BY CREDIT FAULT SWAP DERIVATIVES

- Lender further stood to profit by credit fault swaps in the derivatives market, by way of inside
- 304 information that Lender had as a result of creating the faulty loans sure to default. Lender was
- 305 then free to invest on the bet that said loan would default and stood to receive unjust enrichment
- 306 a third time. This credit default swap derivative market scheme is almost totally responsible for
- 307 the stock market disaster we now experience as it was responsible for the stock market crash in
- 308 1907.

TRUTH IN LENDING STATEMENT VARIANCES

- 310 The lender defrauded Petitioner by claiming a fraudulent payment amount not consistent with the
- 311 provisions of the contract entered into by Petitioner. If Petitioner paid the amount specified by
- 312 the Truth in Lending Statement, instead of the amount agreed to in the promissory note created
- by Petitioner, Lender would have defrauded Petitioner of an amount equal to $1,112,451.91.

LENDER CHARGED FALSE FEES

- 315 Lender charged fees to Petitioner that were in violation of the limitations imposed by the Real
- 316 Estate Settlement Procedures Act as said fees were simply contrived and not paid to a third party
- 317 vendor.

- 318 Lender charged other fees that were a normal part of doing business and should have been
- included in the finance charge.
- Below is a listing of the fees charged at settlement. Neither at settlement, nor at any other time
- 321 did Lender or Trustee provide documentation to show that the fees herein listed were valid,
- necessary, reasonable, and proper to charge Petitioner.

- 323 Debtor is unable to determine whether or not the above fees are valid in accordance with the
- 324 restrictions provided by the various consumer protection laws. Therefore, please provide; a
- 325 complete billing from each vendor who provided the above listed services; the complete contact

326 information for each vendor who provided a billed service; clearly stipulate as to the specific service performed; a showing that said service was necessary; a showing that the cost of said 327 328 service is reasonable; a showing of why said service is not a regular cost of doing business that 329 should rightly be included in the finance charge. 330 The above charges are hereby disputed and deemed unreasonable until such time as said charges 331 have been demonstrated to be reasonable, necessary, and in accordance with the limitations and 332 restrictions included in any and all laws, rules, and regulations intended to protect the consumer 333 334 In the event lender fails to properly document the above charges, borrower will consider same as 335 false charges. The effect of the above amounts that borrower would pay over the life of the note 336 will be an overpayment of $906,697.14. This amount will be reduced by the amount of items 337 above when said items are fully documented. 338 RESPA PENALTY 339 From a cursory examination of the records, with the few available, the apparent RESPA 340 violations are as follows: Good Faith Estimate not within limits, No HUD-1 Booklet, Truth In 341 Lending Statement not within limits compared to Note, Truth in Lending Statement not timely 342 presented, HUD-1 not presented at least one day before closing, No Holder Rule Notice in Note, No 1st Payment Letter. 343 344 The closing documents included no signed and dated: Financial Privacy Act Disclosure; Equal 345 Credit Reporting Act Disclosure; notice of right to receive appraisal report; servicing disclosure 346 statement; borrower's Certification of Authorization; notice of credit score; RESPA servicing 347 disclosure letter; loan discount fee disclosure; business insurance company arrangement 348 disclosure; notice of right to rescind. 349 The courts have held that the borrower does not have to show harm to claim a violation of the 350 Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, as the Act was intended to insure strict compliance. And, 351 in as much as the courts are directed to assess a penalty of no less than two hundred dollars and 352 no more than two thousand, considering the large number enumerated here, it is reasonable to consider that the court will assess the maximum amount for each violation. 353 354 Since the courts have held that the penalty for a violation of RESPA accrues at consummation of 355 the note, borrower has calculated that, the number of violations found in a cursory examination

356 of the note, if deducted from the principal, would result in an overpayment on the part of the 357 borrower, over the life of the note, of $947,049.34. 358 If the violation penalty amounts for each of the unsupported fees listed above are included, the 359 amount by which the borrower would be defrauded is $961,670.48 360 Adding in RESPA penalites for all the unsupported settlement fees along with the TILA/Note 361 variance, it appears that lender intended to defraud borrower in the amount of $3,927,868.87. 362 LENDER CONSPIRED WITH APPRAISER 363 Lender, in furtherance of the above referenced conspiracy, conspired with appraiser for the 364 purpose of preparing an appraisal with a falsely stated price, in violation of appraiser's fiduciary 365 duty to Petitioner and appraiser's duty to provide fair and honest services, for the purpose of 366 inducing Petitioner to enter into a loan product that was fraudulent toward the interests of 367 Petitioner. 368 LENDER CONSPIRED WITH TRUSTEE 369 Lender conspired with the trust Agent at closing to create a condition of stress for the specific 370 purpose of inducing Petitioner to sign documents without allowing time for Petitioner to read and 371 fully understand what was being signed. 372 The above referenced closing procedure was a carefully crafted connivance, designed and 373 intended to induce Petitioner, through shame and trickery, in violation of trustee's fiduciary duty 374 to Petitioner and the duty to provide fair and honest services, to sign documents that Petitioner 375 did not have opportunity to read and fully understand, thereby, denying Petitioner full disclosure 376 as required by various consumer protection statutes. 377 DECEPTIVE ADVERTISING AND OTHER UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES In the manner in which Defendants have carried on their business enterprises, they have engaged 378 379 in a variety of unfair and unlawful business practices prohibited by 15 USC Section 45 et seq. (Deceptive Practices Act). 380 381 Such conduct comprises a pattern of business activity within the meaning of such statutes, and 382 has directly and proximately caused Petitioner to suffer economic and non-economic harm and detriment in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.

387 Any claims for statutory and other money damages under the Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. § 388 1601, et. seq.) and under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (12 U.S.C. § 2601 et. seq.)

are subject to a one-year limitations period; however, such claims are subject to the equitable 390 tolling doctrine. The Ninth Circuit has interpreted the TILA limitations period in § 1640(e) as 391 subject to equitable tolling. In King v. California, 784 F.2d 910 (9th Cir.1986), the court held that given the remedial purpose of TILA, the limitations period should run from the date of consummation of the transaction, but that "the doctrine of equitable tolling may, in appropriate circumstances, suspend the limitations period until the borrower discovers or has reasonable 395 opportunity to discover the fraud or nondisclosures that form the basis of the TILA action." King 396 v. California, 784 F.2d 910, 915 9th Cir. 1986).

397 Likewise, while the Ninth Circuit has not taken up the question whether 12 U.S.C. § 2614, the 398 anti-kickback provision of RESPA, is subject to equitable tolling, other Courts have, and hold that such limitations period may be equitably tolled. The Court of Appeals for the District of 400 Columbia held that § 2614 imposes a strictly jurisdictional limitation, Hardin v. City Title &

401 Escrow Co., 797 F.2d 1037, 1039-40 (D.C. Cir. 1986), while the Seventh Circuit came to the 402 opposite conclusion. Lawyers Title Ins. Corp. v. Dearborn Title Corp., 118 F.3d 1157, 1164 (7th 403 Cir. 1997). District courts have largely come down on the side of the Seventh Circuit in holding 404 that the one-year limitations period in § 2614 is subject to equitable tolling. See, e.g., Kerby v.

405 Mortgage Funding Corp., 992 F.Supp. 787, 791-98 (D.Md. 1998); Moll v. U.S. Life Title Ins. Co.,

406 700 F.Supp. 1284, 1286-89 (S.D.N.Y.1988). Importantly, the Ninth Circuit, as noted above, has interpreted the TILA limitations period in 15 U.S.C. § 1640 as subject to equitable tolling; the language of the two provisions is nearly identical. King v. California, 784 F.2d at 914. While not of precedential value, this Court has previously found both the TILA and RESPA limitations periods to be subject to equitable tolling. Blaylock v. First American Title Ins. Co., 504

411 F.Supp.2d 1091, (W.D. Wash. 2007). 1106-07.

The Ninth Circuit has explained that the doctrine of equitable tolling "focuses on excusable delay

413 by the Petitioner," and inquires whether "a reasonable Petitioner would ... have known of the 414 existence of a possible claim within the limitations period." Johnson v. Henderson, 314 F.3d

- 416 Equitable tolling focuses on the reasonableness of the Petitioner's delay and does not depend on
- any wrongful conduct by the Defendants. Santa Maria. at 1178.

418 BUSINESS PRACTICES CONCERNING DISREGARDING OF UNDERWRITING

419 STANDARDS

- 420 Traditionally, Lenders required borrowers seeking mortgage loans to document their income and
- 421 assets by, for example, providing W-2 statements, tax returns, bank statements, documents
- 422 evidencing title, employment information, and other information and documentation that could
- be analyzed and investigated for its truthfulness, accuracy, and to determine the borrower's
- 424 ability to repay a particular loan over both the short and long term. Defendants deviated from and
- disregarded these standards, particularly with regard to its riskier and more profitable loan
- 426 products.

Low-Documentation/No-Documentation Loans.

- Driven by its desire for market share and a perceived need to maintain competitiveness with the
- 429 likes of Countrywide, Defendants began to introduce an ever increasing variety of low and no
- 430 documentation loan products, including the HARMs and HELOCs described hereinabove, and
- 431 began to deviate from and ease its underwriting criteria, and then to grant liberal exceptions to
- the already eased underwriting standards to the point of disregarding such standards. This
- 433 quickened the loan origination process, allowing for the generation of more and more loans
- which could then be resold and/or securitized in the secondary market.
- 435 Defendants marketed no-documentation/low-documentation loan programs that included
- 436 HARMs and HELOCs, among others, in which loans were given based on the borrower's "stated
- 437 income" or "stated assets" (SISA) neither of which were verified. Employment was verbally
- 438 confirmed, if at all, but not further investigated, and income, if it was even considered as a factor,
- was to be roughly consistent with incomes in the types of jobs in which the borrower was
- 440 employed. When borrowers were requested to document their income, they were able to do so
- through information that was less reliable than in a full-documentation loan.
- 442 For stated income loans, it became standard practice for loan processors, loan officers and
- 443 underwriters to rely on www.salary.com to see if a stated income was reasonable. Such stated
- 444 income loans, emphasizing loan origination from a profitability standpoint at the expense of 445 determining the ability of the borrower to repay the loan from an underwriting standpoint, 446 encouraged the overstating and/or fabrication of income. 447 Easing of Underwriting Standards 448 In order to produce more loans that could be resold/securitized in the secondary mortgage 449 market, Defendants also relaxed, and often disregarded, traditional underwriting standards used 450 to separate acceptable from unacceptable risk. Examples of such relaxed standards was reducing 451 the base FICO score needed for a SISA loan. 452 Other underwriting standards that Defendants relaxed included qualifying interest rates (the rate 453 used to determine whether borrowers can afford the loan), loan to value ratios (the amount of loan(s) compared to the appraised/sale price of the property, whichever is lower), and debt-to-454 455 income ratios (the amount of monthly income compared to monthly debt service payments and 456 other monthly payment obligations. 457 With respect to HARMS, Defendants underwrote loans without regard to the borrower's long-458 term financial circumstances, approving the loan based on the initial fixed rate without taking 459 into account whether the borrower could afford the substantially higher payment that would 460 inevitably be required during the remaining term of the loan. 461 With respect to HELOCs, Defendants underwrote and approved such loans based only on the 462 borrower's ability to afford the interest-only payment during the initial draw period of the loan, 463 rather than on the borrower's ability to. afford the subsequent, fully amortized principal and 464 interest payments. 465 As Defendants pushed to expand market share, they eased other basic underwriting standards. For example, higher loan-to-value (LTV) and combined loan-to-value (CLTV) ratios were 466 467 allowed. Likewise, higher debt-to-income (DTI) ratios were allowed. In each case, the higher the 468 ratio the greater the risk that the borrower will default. 469 Defendants knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, from its own 470 underwriting guidelines industry standards that it was accumulating and selling/reselling risky 471 loans that were likely to end up in default. However, as the pressure mounted to increase market 472 share and originate more loans, Defendants began to grant "exceptions" even to its relaxed underwriting guidelines. Such was the environment that loan officers and underwriters were,

- from time to time, placed in the position of having to justify why they did not approve a loan that failed to meet underwriting criteria.
  - Risk Layering

476

- 477 Defendants compromised its underwriting even further by risk layering, i.e. combining high risk
- 478 loans with one or more relaxed underwriting standards.
- 479 Defendants knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that layered risk
- 480 would increase the likelihood of default. Among the risk layering Defendants engaged in were
- 481 approving HARM loans with little to no down payment, little to no documentation, and high
- 482 DTI/LTV/CLTV ratios. Despite such knowledge, Defendants combined these very risk factors in
- 483 the loans it promoted to borrowers.
- 484 Loan officers and mortgage Agents aided and abetted this scheme by working closely with other
- 485 mortgage Lenders/mortgage bankers to increase loan originations, knowing or having reason to
- 486 believe that Defendants and other mortgage Lenders/mortgage bankers with whom they did
- business ignored basic established underwriting standards and acted to mislead the borrower, all
- 488 to the detriment of the borrower and the consumer of loan products...
- Petitioner is informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Defendants, and each of them,
- 490 engaged and/or actively participated in, authorized, ratified, or had knowledge of, all of the
- business practices described above in paragraphs 30-42 of this Complaint
  - UNJUST ENRICHMENT
- 493 Petitioner is informed and believes that each and all of the Defendants received a benefit at
- 494 Petitioner's expense, including but not limited to the following: To the Agent, commissions,
- 495 yield spread premiums, spurious fees and charges, and other "back end" payments in amounts to
- 496 be proved at trial: To the originating Lender, commissions, incentive bonuses, resale premiums,
- 497 surcharges and other "back end" payments in amounts to be proved at trial; To the investors,
- 498 resale premiums, and high rates of return; To the servicers including EMS, servicing fees,
- 499 percentages of payment proceeds, charges, and other "back end" payments in amounts to be
- 500 proved at trial; To all participants, the expectation of future revenues from charges, penalties and
- fees paid by Petitioner when the unaffordable LOAN was foreclosed or refinanced.

502 By their misrepresentations, omissions and other wrongful acts alleged heretofore. Defendants. and each of them, were unjustly enriched at the expense of Petitioner, and Petitioner was unjustly 503 504 deprived, and is entitled to restitution in the amount of $3,927,868.87. 505 CLAIM TO QUIET TITLE. 506 Petitioner properly averred a claim to quiet title. Petitioner included both the street address, and 507 the Assessor's Parcel Number for the property. Petitioner has set forth facts concerning the title 508 interests of the subject property. Moreover, as shown above, Petitioner's claims for rescission 509 and fraud are meritorious. As such, Petitioner's bases for quiet title are meritorious as well. 510 Defendants have no title, estate, lien, or interest in the Subject Property in that the purported 511 power of sale contained in the Deed of Trust is of no force or effect because Defendants' security 512 interest in the Subject Property has been rendered void and that the Defendants are not the holder 513 in due course of the Promissory Note. Moreover, because Petitioner properly pled all Defendants' 514 involvement in a fraudulent scheme, all Defendants are liable for the acts of its co-conspirators, 515 "a Petitioner is entitled to damages from those Defendants who concur in the tortious 516 scheme with knowledge of its unlawful purpose." Wyatt v. Union Mortgage Co., 24 Cal. 517 3d 773, 157 Cal. Rptr. 392, 598 P.2d 45 (1979); Novartis Vaccines and Diagnostics, Inc. 518 v. Stop Huntingdon Animal Cruelty USA, Inc., 143 Cal. App. 4th 1284, 50 Cal. Rptr. 3d 519 27 (1st Dist. 2006); Kidron v. Movie Acquisition Corp., 40 Cal. App. 4th 1571, 47 Cal. 520 Rptr. 2d 752 (2d Dist. 1995). 521 SUFFICIENCY OF PLEADING 522 Petitioner has sufficiently pled that relief can be granted on each and every one of the 523 Complaint's causes of action. A complaint should not be dismissed "unless it appears beyond 524 doubt that the Petitioner can prove no set of facts in support of Petitioner claim which would 525 entitle Petitioner to relief." Housley v. U.S. (9th Cir. Nev. 1994) 35 F.3d 400, 401. "All allegations of material fact in the complaint are taken as true and construed in the light most 526 527 favorable to Petitioner." Argabright v. United States, 35 F.3d 1476, 1479 (9th Cir. 1996). 528 Attendant, the Complaint includes a "short, plain statement, of the basis for relief." Fed. Rule Civ. Proc.

532 conclusions in the Complaint can and should be drawn from the facts alleged, and, in turn, the court 533 should accept them as such. Clegg v. Cult Awareness Network, 18 F.3d 752 (9th Cir. 1994). Lastly. 534 Petitioner's complaint contains claims and has a probable validity of proving a "set of facts" in support of 535 their claim entitling them to relief. Housley v. U.S. (9th Cir. Nev. 1994) 35 F.3d 400, 401. Therefore, 536 relief as requested herein should be granted. 537 CAUSES OF ACTION 538 BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY 539 Defendants Agent, appraiser, trustee, Lender, et al, and each of them, owed Petitioner a fiduciary 540 duty of care with respect to the mortgage loan transactions and related title activities involving 541 the Trust Property. 542 Defendants breached their duties to Petitioner by, inter alia, the conduct described above. Such 543 breaches included, but were not limited to, ensuring their own and Petitioners' compliance with 544 all applicable laws governing the loan transactions in which they were involved, including but not limited to, TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations X and Z promulgated there under. 545 546 Defendant's breaches of said duties was a direct and proximate cause of economic and non-547 economic harm and detriment to Petitioner(s). 548 Petitioner did suffer economic, non-economic harm, and detriment as a result of such conduct, 549 all to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter. 550 CAUSE OF ACTION - NEGLIGENCE/NEGLIGENCE PER SE 551 Defendants owed a general duty of care with respect to Petitioners, particularly concerning their 552 duty to properly perform due diligence as to the loans and related transactional issues described 553 hereinabove. 554 In addition, Defendants owed a duty of care under TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations X and Z promulgated there under to, among other things, provide proper disclosures concerning 555 556 the terms and conditions of the loans they marketed, to refrain from marketing loans they knew 557 or should have known that borrowers could not afford or maintain, and to avoid paying undue 558 compensation such as "yield spread premiums" to mortgage Agents and loan officers.

559	Defendants knew or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that the loan
560	transactions involving Petitioner and other persons similarly situated were defective, unlawful,
561	violative of federal and state laws and regulations, and would subject Petitioner to economic and
562	non-economic harm and other detriment.
563	Petitioner is among the class of persons that TILA, HOEPA, RESPA and the Regulations X and
564	Z promulgated there under were intended and designed to protect, and the conduct alleged
565	against Defendants is the type of conduct and harm which the referenced statutes and regulations
566	were designed to deter.
567	As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence, Petitioner suffered economic and
568	non-economic harm in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.
569	AGENT: COMMON LAW FRAUD
570	If any Agents' misrepresentations made herein were not intentional, said misrepresentations were
571	negligent. When the Agents made the representations alleged herein, he/she/it had no reasonable
572	ground for believing them to be true.
573	Agents made these representations with the intention of inducing Petitioner to act in reliance on
574	these representations in the manner hereafter alleged, or with the expectation that Petitioner
575	would so act.
576	Petitioner is informed and believes that Agent et al, facilitated, aided and abetted various Agents
577	in their negligent misrepresentation, and that various Agents were negligent in not implementing
578	procedures such as underwriting standards oversight that would have prevented various Agents
579	from facilitating the irresponsible and wrongful misrepresentations of various Agents to
580	Defendants .
581	Petitioner is informed and believes that Agent acted in concert along with other others named
582	herein in promulgating false representations to cause Petitioner to enter into the LOAN without
583	knowledge or understanding of the terms thereof.
584	As a proximate result of the negligent misrepresentations of Agents as herein alleged, the
585	Petitioner sustained damages, including monetary loss, emotional distress, loss of credit, loss o
586	opportunities, attorney fees and costs, and other damages to be determined at trial. As a
587	proximate result of Agents' breach of duty and all other actions as alleged herein, Defendants has

588 suffered severe emotional distress, mental anguish, harm, humiliation, embarrassment, and 589 mental and physical pain and anguish, all to Petitioner's damage in an amount to be established 590 at trial. 591 PETITIONER PROPERLY AVERRED A CLAIM FOR BREACH OF THE IMPLIED 592 COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING. 593 Petitioner properly pled Defendants violated the breach of implied covenant of good faith and 594 fair dealing. "Every contract imposes upon each party a duty of good faith and fair dealing in its 595 performance and its enforcement." Price v. Wells Fargo Bank, 213 Cal.App.3d 465, 478, 261 Cal. Rptr. 735 (1989); Rest.2d Contracts § 205. A mortgage Agent has fiduciary duties. Wyatt v. 596 597 Union Mortgage Co., (1979) 24 Cal. 3d. 773. Further, In Jonathan Neil & Associates, Inc. v 598 Jones, (2004) 33 Cal. 4th 917, the court stated: 599 In the area of insurance contracts the covenant of good faith and fair dealing has taken on a particular significance, in part because of the special relationship between the insurer and the 600 601 insured. The insurer, when determining whether to settle a claim, must give at least as much 602 consideration to the welfare of its insured as it gives to its own interests. . . The standard is premised on the insurer's obligation to protect the insured's interests . . . Id. at 937. 603 604 Likewise, there is a special relationship between a Agent and borrower. "A person who provides 605 Agentage services to a borrower in a covered loan transaction by soliciting Lenders or otherwise negotiating a consumer loan secured by real property, is the fiduciary of the consumer...this 606 607 fiduciary duty [is owed] to the consumer regardless of whom else the Agent may be acting as an 608 Agent for . . . The fiduciary duty of the Agent is to deal with the consumer in good faith. If the 609 Agent knew or should have known that the Borrower will or has a likelihood of defaulting ... they 610 have a fiduciary duty to the borrower not to place them in that loan." (California Department of Real Estate, Section 8: Fiduciary Responsibility, www.dre.ca.gov). [Emphasis Added]. 611 612 All Defendants, willfully breached their implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing with 613 Petitioner when Defendants: (1) Failed to provide all of the proper disclosures; (2) Failed to 614 provide accurate Right to Cancel Notices; (3) Placed Petitioner into Petitioner's current loan 615 product without regard for other more affordable products; (4) Placed Petitioner into a loan 616 without following proper underwriting standards; (5) Failed to disclose to Petitioner that 617 Petitioner was going to default because of the loan being unaffordable; (6) Failed to perform 618 valid and /or properly documented substitutions and assignments so that Petitioner could

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

	Clint Carmichael	Case #
	Plaintiff,
	vs.	ORDER
	J P MORGAN CHASE 270 PARK AVE NEW YORK, NY 10017
	Defendant
718
719	After considering Petitioner's application for	or temporary restraining order, the pleadings,
720	the affidavits, and arguments of counsel, the court f	inds there is evidence that harm is imminent
721	to Petitioner, and if the court does not issue the ter	mporary restraining order, Petitioner will be
722	irreparably injured because Petitioner's application is not granted, harm is imminent and
723	irreparable if Defendants are allowed to proceed with foreclosure, Defendants will foreclose and
724	liquidate Petitioner's primary residence and leave Petitioner with no home. Petitioner has no
725	place to move or reside due to the cost of litigation and financial distress caused in part by the
726	fraud of Defendants pleadings here. There is no adequate remedy at law to calculate damages to
727	Petitioner if Petitioner is removed from residence and made homeless.
728	Therefore, the court orders the following:
729	JP Morgan Chase, by and through it's attorney, Steffi A. Swanson, 1902 Harlan Drive,
730	Suite A, Bellevue, NE 68005, is restrained from further proceedings on the issue of foreclosure
731	for which there is a challenge to the standing of Defe	endants to prosecute foreclosure.
732	The clerk is ordered to issue notice to Defendar	t, by and through its attorney, Steffi A.
733	Swanson, 1902 Harlan Drive, Suite A, Bellevue I	NE 68005, that the hearing on Petitioner's
734	application for temporary injunction is set for	, 20, at a.m./p.m. The
735	purpose of the hearing shall be to determine whether	er this temporary restraining order should be

619 ascertain Petitioner rights and duties; and (7) Failed to respond in good faith to Petitioner's 620 request for documentation of the servicing of Petitioner's loan and the existence and content of 621 relevant documents. Additionally, Defendants breached their implied covenant of good faith and 622 fair dealing with Petitioner when Defendants initiated foreclosure proceedings even without the 623 right under an alleged power of sale because the purported assignment was not recorded and by 624 willfully and knowingly financially profiting from their malfeasance. Therefore, due to the 625 special relationship inherent in a real estate transaction between Agent and borrower, and all Defendants' participation in the conspiracy, the Motion to Dismiss should be denied. 626

- Petitioner hereby incorporates by reference, re-pleads and re-alleges each and every allegation
- 630 contained in all of the paragraphs of the General Allegations and Facts Common to All Causes of
- Action as though the same were set forth herein.
- This consumer credit transaction was subject to the Petitioner's right of rescission as described
- 633 by 15 U.S.C. § 1635(a) and Regulation Z § 226.23 (12 C.F.R. § 226.23).
- 634 More particularly, the same Defendants violated 15 U.S.C. § 1635(a) and Regulation Z §
- 635 226.23(b) with regards to the purported Notice of Right to Cancel. As a consequence of this
- 636 action, the Notice of Right to Cancel documentation was not provided to Petitioner or if
- 637 furnished, to Petitioner it failed to: Correctly identify the transaction, Clearly and conspicuously
- disclose the Petitioner's right to rescind the transaction three days after delivery of all required
- 639 disclosures, Clearly and conspicuously disclose how to exercise the right to rescind the
- 640 transaction, with a form for that purpose, Clearly and conspicuously disclose the effects of
- rescission, Clearly and conspicuously disclose the date the rescission period expired.
- Petitioner is informed and believes that Defendants's violation of the provisions of law rendered
- 643 the credit transaction null and void, invalidates Defendants's claimed interest in the Subject
- Property, and entitles Petitioner to damages as proven at trial.

INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

- The conduct committed by Defendants, driven as it was by profit at the expense of increasingly
- 647 highly leveraged and vulnerable consumers who placed their faith and trust in the superior

649	civilized society.
650	Defendants either knew that their conduct would cause Petitioner to suffer severe emotional
651	distress, or acted in conscious and/or reckless disregard of the probability that such distress
652	would occur.
653	Petitioner did in fact suffer severe emotional distress as an actual and proximate result of the
654	conduct of Defendants as described hereinabove.
655	As a result of such severe emotional distress, Petitioner suffered economic and non economic
656	harm and detriment, all to be shown according to proof at trial of this matter.
657	Petitioner demands that Defendants provide Petitioner with release of lien on the lien signed by
658	Petitioner and secure to Petitioner quite title;
659	Petitioner demands Defendants disgorge themselves of all enrichment received from Petitioner
660	as payments to Defendants based on the fraudulently secured promissory note in an amount to be
661	calculated by Defendants and verified to Petitioner;
662	Petitioner further demands that Defendants pay to Petitioner an amount equal to trebel the
